Dear Friends,

Thanks to supporters like you, the Pikes Peak Lavender Film Festival is now preparing for our fantastic sixth festival! We can hardly believe we've made it this far. Our fifth year was one of our best with many great lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgendered films. Remember the astounding music and performances in Franco Zeffirelli's, "Callas Forever"; the hilarious Rock Hudson parody, "Straight Jacket"; Allan Broca's funny and sexy "Eating Out", the important documentary "Tying the Knot", which argues for the inclusion of gays and lesbians in the basic civil right of marriage; and our best ever opening night party where we filled the house for the hilarious film, "Gold Fish Memories".

Because of your support, the Pikes Peak Lavender Film Festival has become a welcome tradition and one of the premier cultural events in Colorado Springs. We like to think that our festival helps provide a more balanced image for our city. This year will again feature the proudest and best lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgendered films from around the world! We are pleased to announce this year's festival will be held on September 16th, 17th, and 18th at the Colorado Springs Fine Arts Center.

It's time to begin selecting our films. Our opportunities to secure the best films are greatest if we know we have funding when we book films this spring. As always, we need your support in sponsoring the program and your sponsorship has the greatest impact, and appreciation, if you pledge before June.

Attached you'll find a sponsor form describing our film and festival sponsorship levels. Individual and business sponsors receive recognition in our program and from the stage on Opening Night. We will again project our sponsors' names and business logos on the big screen before each film, one more way for us to say thank you to the many fantastic people and businesses that support our festival. Your contributions are tax-deductible as an advertising expense or as a donation to a non-profit, 501(C)(3) organization.

It's a joy and a privilege to present such important and though provoking films. Our festival gets better every year and we know this year will be no exception. We hope you will be able to attend our wonderful Opening Night party and join in the festivities throughout the weekend. We look forward to seeing you and thank you for your contribution.

Sincerely,

Pikes Peak Lavender Film Festival Committee 2005
